THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From SATURDAY November 28, to SATURDAY December 5, 1741.

From the London Gazette.

DANTZICK, September 13.

THIS Evening a Courier arrived from Petersburgh to the Ruſſian Reſident in this City, and brought an Account, that General Lacy being arriv'd in Finland, went on the 2d Inſtant to reconnoitre the Swediſh Army, and found them ſtrongly intrench'd on a riſing Ground near a Fort call'd Wilmerſtrand, and well fortified: That on the 3d in the Afternoon, he order'd the Ruſſian Army to advance and attack the Swedes, which they did with ſo much Bravery, that after an obſtinate Fight of ſome Hours, the Swedes, who defended themſelves in a deſperate Manner, were put to flight, and the Ruſſian Army obtained a compleat Victory. The Ruſſians afterwards ſtorm'd and took Fort Wilmerſtrand, and made themſelves Maſters of the whole Artillery, of two conſiderable Magazines, and all the Baggage. General Wrangel, who commanded the Swediſh Army, was taken Priſoner with about 2000 Men; and the Number of Swedes that were kill'd in this Engagement amount to above 7000. In this Action the left Wing of the Ruſſian Army being put in ſome Diſorder, General Lacy went himſelf with three Regiments of Dragoons to ſupport it, were he received a ſlight Wound; and ſeveral General Officers where kill'd and wounded on both Sides.

From the London Gazette.

Lintzbourg, Sept. 22 A Gentleman is arriv'd here from Petersbourg, with a Confirmation of the Victory obtained by the Ruſſians over the Swedes at Wilmerſtrand. According to the Account by this Gentleman, the Swedes loſt in this Action 9000 Men, and the Ruſſians 4000.

Nuremberg, Sept. 2. The Regency omit nothing that may contribute towards the Safety of this City in the preſent Juncture. The Imperial Crown, Scepter and Globe, and other Things uſed at the Inauguration of the Emperors, have been taken out of the Church in which they were kept here, and depoſited in a Place known to the Magiſtrates alone

Modena, Aug. 27. The Duke our Sovereign has reſolv'd to augment his Troops to 12,000 Men, that he may the better ſupport the Intereſt of the Queen of Hungary, and contribute towards maintaining the Balance of Italy: In conſequence of this Reſolution we have began to make new Levies

Ratiſbon Sept. 4 We hear from Munich, that the Elector of Bavaria is to ſet out forthwith, in order to put himſelf at the Head of the French Army, and begin the Operations of the Campaign, for which vaſt Preparations are making all over that Electorate.

Hamburgh, Sept. 5. The 6000 Daniſh Troops in the King of Great Britain's Pay, paſſed the Elb this Morning at Blankeneſe: They are to join the Hanoverians at the Camp of Barnſtorff. The 6000 Heſſians are to march to the Camp that is forming at Hamelen.

Vienna, Aug. 30. The Anſwer which the Court has receiv'd to the Propoſals made to the Elector of Bavaria for an Accommodation is not ſatisfactory; for we are aſſur'd that his Electoral Highneſs has declar'd that Matters are gone too far to liſten to Propoſals, which are ſo much the leſs acceptable as there is not the leaſt Mention of Bohemia in them. This Anſwer, and the News that the French had paſſed the Rhine, and were continuing their March towards Bavaria, occaſioned a great Council to be held at Presbourg, in which we are aſſur'd a Reſolution was taken to grant the King of Pruſſia Part of his Claims to Sileſia. It is added, that the Queen conſents to cede to that Prince the Principalities of Jagerendorff, Lignitz, Brieg and Wohlau, with their Dependencies, upon Condition that his Pruſſian Majeſty ſhall pay her a certain Sum of Money, and furniſh her with 10,000 of his Troops to defend the Hereditary Countries againſt the Elector of Bavaria. The Queen's Reſolution having been communicated to Mr. Robinſon, his Excellency immediately ſet out for Sileſia, in order to conclude an Accommodation with the King of Pruſſia.

Vienna, Sept 16. Yeſterday we receiv'd Advice of the Elector of Bavaria's taking Lintz, Capital of the Upper Auſtria, as well as Ens, and that he paſs'd the River of that Name: At the ſame time we heard that part of the French Troops were arriv'd, at Paſſau. The Auſtrian Detachment that were poſted at the Confluence of the Ens and the Danube retir'd, after demoliſhing the Fort and carrying off the Artillery. Count Charles Palfy has likewiſe abandon'd the Frontiers, and retreated with his regular Troops and 2000 Croatians into an Iſland in the Danube, where he thinks he may ſtop the Enemy's Progreſs.

This News has encreaſed the Conſternation of the Inhabitants of this Capital. People in eaſy Circumſtances continue moving off they beſt Effect, and there is ſuch Confuſion and Througing at the City Gates that it is very difficult to get in or or out.

The Great Duke of Tuſcany is arriv'd here from Preſbourg, to encourage the Inhabitants by his Preſence, and give Orders for the defence of the City, in which he is ſeconded by his Brother Prince Charles. The 14th Inſtant an Order was publiſh'd for all the Inhabitants to lay in Proviſions for ſix Months; thoſe that are not able to do it are to be turn'd out of the City, except they are fit to bear Arms.

Yeſterday another Order was publiſh'd, enjoining the People of the open Country to bring their Cattle and other Proviſions to this Capital, and reſerve only what is neceſſary for their own Subſiſtence. All the Mills of this Neighbourhood are at work, and the Meal is laid up in our Magazines.

A Camp is mark'd out near this City for 15000 Hungarians, who are expected here in a little time: We are aſſur'd they'll be followed by 15000 more, and that the Velt-Marſhal Count Palfy is to command that Army. By order of the Queen moſt of the Plate in the Favorita, and her Majeſty's other Palaces, has been carried to the Mint and coin'd The Nobleſſe have alſo followed her Majeſty's Example, Whitehall, Sept. 15, Capt. Medley, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Nassau, writes Word, that his Boats had taken out of a little Bay near Vivero, two Barks laden with Lime and Crockery Ware, and that he had order'd the Things to be taken out and the Barks to be sunk.

And Capt. Martin, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Assistance, writes Word, that he had taken two Prizes, he is bringing to Spithead; the first of which is call'd the Conception, of 180 Tons, bound from Port Passage to Carthagena, with Beef, Pork and Flour for the King of Spain's Fleet: She was commanded by Don Juan Gonzalez, and had 37 Men on board. And the other, the St. Dominique, of 200 Tons, bound from Greenland to St Jean de Luz, with Oil and two Whales, and had 62 Men on board. Capt. Martin is also bringing with him to Spithead two Prizes taken by Capt. Harrison in the Argyle, off Oporto.

LONDON, September 5.

Commodore Brown sail'd on Wednesday from the Nore, with five Ships of the Line, in order to join Sir John Norris at Spithead.

By Letters from Dover we have an Account, that his Majesty's Sloop Swift, cruising between Dunkirk and Calais on Tuesday last, took and sent into Dover a Brigantine from Holland, upon Information that she was loaded with Gun-powder, and other warlike Stores, and bound for St. Sebastian.

On Wednesday last the Windsor Man of War, from Jamaica, arriv'd at Dover, who in her Passage home retook a New England Ship call'd the Sarah, which had been taken by a Spanish Privateer, who was carrying her to St. Augustine.

Sept 8. Some Letters from Ratisbon advise, that the Elector of Bavaria has delcar'd War against the Queen of Hungary.

We hear that a great Number of Palatines are to be Shipp'd next Week for Georgia, under Convoy of the Rye Man of War; several Ships it's said, being taken up for that Purpose.

Sept. 17. The Fleet of Men of War (where design'd is at present kept secret) lie ready at Spithead, waiting only for Sir John Norris, who is at present indisposed at his House in Golden-Square.

Sir Thomas Robinson, one of the Commissioners of Excise, we hear, will succeed his late Excellency Governor Byng in the Government of Barbadoes.

✠ WHEREAS a Paragraph was inserted in his Paper of the 28th past, setting forth, that Mr. Stone, Lieut. of the Revenge Privateer commanded by Capt. Norton, had taken a Spanish Privateer, &c. which Account is entirely false, Capt. Norton having during the whole Engagement with the said Prize, behav'd with as much good Conduct and Courage as any Commander could do; And Duncan M'Kinley, late Company's Quarter-Master of the Revenge aforesaid, having deserted the Vessel at Providence for embezzeling some of the said Company Money, has asserted the same only out of Revenge to Capt. Norton.

WILLIAM STONE.

N.B. The said Spanish Privateer has not taken 42 Prizes as was reported, nor is she the famous black Sloop of St. Augustine.

CHARLES-TOWN, December 5.

Extract of a Letter from Frederica, dated Nov. 12*th*, 1741.

'The last Party of Indians which went out from hence 'have brought in the Lieutenant of Don Pedro's Troop 'and a private Man; which Prisoners say, that the Gov. 'of the Havannah has sent to St. Augustine for Assistance, 'from which you may judge their Condition.

'I expect next Week to land 60 Indians near Augustine, 'and to sail myself, with the General's Sloop, in about a 'Fortnight.'

On Tuesday last the General Assembly of this Province met in this Town, according to Adjournment.

By a Letter from on Board the Shoreham Man of War at Jamaica, dated the first of October last, we hear, that they had lately taken a rich Spanish Vessel off Carthagena, out of which the Writer (who is a Midship-man on board) expected his Part would amount to upwards of 150 l. Sterling.

Capt. Robert Ford, late Commander of the Crawford Galley, who was taken in May last off our Bar, by a Spanish Privateer, and carried into St Augustine, arrived in Town this Week from Frederica, who came away from St. Augustine on the 4th of November with a Flagg of Truce, and a Letter from the Governor, desiring that Prisoners may be forthwith exchanged, of which there was 54 English in Augustine Castle.

A List of the Prizes taken by the Invincible Shepherdess, (a Spanish Privateer) during the Time of her being commanded by Don Francisco Lorenzo, fitted out at the Havannah and lately taken (off Cuba) by Capt Norton, will be inserted in our next.

Fort Frederick, Port Royal, Nov 25th, 1741.

By Letters from England we hear, that his Majesty has been pleased to appoint Ensign William Tolson, to be eldest Lieutenant in General Oglethorpe's Regiment in America, for his gallant Behaviour in swimming for the Colours at the Siege of St. Augustine.
